INTRODUCTION

Membership within Rotary is by invitation and each new member is regarded as very special. We also like to think that the decision to accept membership, demonstrates a commitment to improving the life and community well-being of others, both at a local level and also internationally.

There is much to enjoy in Rotary and, conversely, much to learn as we experience the Rotary journey. Like all 'journeys' the best outcomes are achieved from undertaking thorough preparations, namely, having a clear sense of purpose, direction and destination; knowing what resources are needed and how such resources can be accessed.

It is often useful to have a 'Guide' in such preparations and that is why we ensure that all new members have the benefit, experience and support of another Club member to make their journey as smooth and satisfying as possible.

This handbook is intended to be a working document for both the Mentor and the New Member as together they explore what is it to be a Rotarian

MENTOR: (NAME)
INDUCTEE: (NAME)

Congratulations to you both as you commence this particular Rotary journey together.

(NAME), you will be the 'handshake' of the entire club as you assist and commit yourself to help feel comfortable and a valued member throughout his orientation.

Thank you, in anticipation, for your gift of time and guidance to (NAME), you will be introduced to a great deal of information about Rotary and your club whilst making new friends and participating in a number of activities in the coming months. You will also find, throughout your orientation, that you will be given or directed to a wide range of resource materials about Rotary and your club. Above all, do not hesitate to ask questions if anything is not clear or about which you may wish further information - this is all part and parcel of an effective orientation program.

Please remember to provide constant feedback to each other throughout the program - it is essential that each communicate honestly and clearly with the other.
